National Air and Space Museum
Accessibility Tips

General Access
- Elevators allow access to all levels of the museum.
- Wheelchairs are available on a first come/first serve basis at the South Security Desk on the 1st floor.
- Accessible family restrooms are located outside the entrance to the Food Court
- All restrooms are accessible.
- Accessible seating is available at the IMAX Theater and Einstein Planetarium.

Visual Access
- Alternate format guides available at Welcome Center:
  - Braille guides for select galleries
  - Large Print guides
  - Audio guides of the GoSmithsonian
- Tactile tours are arranged in advance for visitors who are visually impaired. Call 202-633-2921 for more information.

Audio Access
- Audio amplification and audio description is provided by a multi-channel infrared system in the Lockheed Martin IMAX Theater and the Einstein Planetarium.
- Closed-captioning using Rear Window technology is available for IMAX films. Open-captioning is available in preprogrammed planetarium shows.
- Exhibition videos are either captioned or have descriptive labels.
- Tours are arranged in advance for visitors using sign language, oral and cued speech interpreters. Call 202-633-2921 for more information.