

Media only: Amy Stamm (202) 633-2392; stamma@si.edu April 5, 2018
 Alison Mitchell (202) 633-2376; mitchellac@si.edu
Media website: <http://newsdesk.si.edu>

Aircraft Participating in “The Great British Fly-In” April 15:

- CWH Avro Lancaster FM213
- North American B-25D Mitchell “Grumpy”
- North American P-51Ds
- Supermarine Spitfire Mk.IX
- Percival Provost
- Scottish Aviation Bulldog
- Boeing PT-17 Stearman
- DeHavilland Chipmunk
- Boeing P-8 Poseidon
- North American AT-6 Texan
- Short Tucano T Mk1
- Fairchild M-62A3 Cornell

“The Great British Fly-In” Schedule

On-Stage Presentations

10:30 a.m.: “History of the RAF,” Air Vice-Marshal Gavin Parker OBE, Defence Attaché
 11:30 a.m.: “Battle of Britain,” Sebastian Cox, Air Historical Branch
 12:15 p.m.: “Bomber Command,” Alex Spencer, National Air and Space Museum aeronautics curator
 1 p.m.: Aviator panel discussion with pilots of participating aircraft: Heather Penney (Stearman), Leon Evans (Lancaster), Rob Collings (Spitfire), Group Captain Peter Hackett (RAF)
 2 p.m.: “Women in the Royal Air Force,” Flt. Lt. Sarah Cole, Royal Air Force
 2:45 p.m.: “Winston Churchill and the Royal Air Force,” Michael Bishop, executive director of the International Churchill Society
 3:15 p.m.: “Flying the Avro Lancaster,” Flt. Lt. Richard E. Boyd (Ret.) DFC with Group Captain Paul Froome, Royal Air Force

Other Scheduled Activities

11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.: Learn about the Sopwith Camel with Chief Curator Peter Jakob
 2:30 p.m.: The Queen’s Colour Squadron with the RAF Band
 2:40 p.m.: Learn about the Westland Lysander with Aeronautics Curator Alex Spencer
 3:30 p.m.: The Queen’s Colour Squadron with the RAF Band

RSVP to Amy Stamm at stamma@si.edu or (202) 633-2392 or to Alison Mitchell at mitchellac@si.edu or 202-633-2376.

###